ABOUT US

Emigrated to Spain at a very young age, Juan always missed Argentina and his grandmother's food. As a great lover of Argentine gastronomy, in Spain he prepared the typical dishes of this cuisine following his grandmother's recipes and sharing them with all his friends and those around him.

This way, he got his friend Stephen to fall in love with Argentine flavors and together they decided to make Argentine dishes and recipes known all over the world. And so they did it under the name Don Gaucho, praising the Argentine gaucho from the Pampas, a symbol of Juan's homeland that represents the values of freedom, loyalty and courage.

This adventure began with the production of the most iconic products of Argentine cuisine under the brand Don Gaucho: alfajor, dulce de leche and sauces to pair with barbecued meats, all following the recipes that Juan's grandmother had taught him with love.

These products will soon be followed by other gastronomic delicacies from Argentina, such as the famous products of the Argentine brand La Parmesana, of which Don Gaucho is the official distributor in Europe.

Thus, at Don Gaucho we can proudly say that our products come "from Argentina with taste".

THE QUALITY OF DON GAUCHO'S PRODUCTS

If there is something that prevails in the selection of Don Gaucho's products, it is the traditional recipe, the true Argentine flavour and the quality of the ingredients used for their elaboration.

This is endorsed by Chef Chakall, born in Buenos Aires and widely renowned for the Argentine cuisine he offers in his nine restaurants in Portugal, where Don Gaucho's products are present.

He has also participated in television programs in 3 continents and published several books in different countries.

His opinion was clear and concise when he tasted Don Gaucho's products for the first time: unforgettable memories that you will relive again.
